The Historical Background of Kerala Chechi Mula

Origins of Christian Nuns in Kerala

Kerala boasts a long-standing Christian tradition dating back over 2,000 years, with the arrival of Saint Thomas the Apostle, who is believed to have established the first Christian community in the region. Over the centuries, this community evolved, and religious orders began forming, leading to the establishment of convents and nunneries. The emergence of Kerala chechi mula can be traced back to the colonial era when European missionaries, particularly Portuguese, Dutch, and British, introduced Western monastic practices. These influences melded with local traditions to create a distinctive form of monastic life unique to Kerala.

Development of Monastic Orders

Kerala saw the rise of several religious congregations, such as: - The Sisters of Charity - The Missionaries of Jesus - The Holy Family Sisters - The Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI) These congregations focused on education, healthcare, social service, and spiritual growth, with women playing a pivotal role as chechi mula.
