They express actions, states, or occurrences, and are essential for conveying the complete idea. Without verbs, sentences lack clarity and coherence. For example, sentences like "She runs" or "They are happy" are complete because the verbs "runs" and "are" provide crucial information about the subject's action or state. It enables speakers and writers to narrate events, describe situations, and articulate thoughts effectively. Mastery over a wide range of verbs, including their tenses and forms, helps in achieving clarity and fluency in communication.
