The History and Background of Leiths School of Food and Wine

Founding and Evolution

Leiths School of Food and Wine was founded in 1975 by Prue Leith, a distinguished chef, restaurateur, and food writer, alongside her husband, John Lytle. Originally conceived as a professional cookery school, it quickly gained recognition for its rigorous curriculum and emphasis on classical techniques. Over the years, Leiths expanded its offerings to include courses suitable not only for aspiring professional chefs but also for enthusiastic home cooks. Throughout its history, Leiths has maintained a focus on quality, innovation, and accessibility. Its commitment to nurturing culinary talent has helped many students achieve successful careers in the culinary industry, open restaurants, or simply elevate their home cooking.

Core Philosophy and Approach

Leiths School of Food and Wine emphasizes a practical, hands-on approach to culinary education. The philosophy centers on teaching fundamental techniques that serve as a foundation for all cooking styles and cuisines. The school believes that mastering basic skills—such as knife handling, sauces, baking, and butchery—is essential for building confidence and creativity in the kitchen. The school's approach balances tradition with innovation, encouraging students to experiment and develop their personal culinary style. Its focus on seasonal ingredients, sustainable practices, and global cuisines reflects contemporary food trends while respecting classical techniques.
