Analysis of Typical Cloze Answers for Act 1

Below is a detailed exploration of what students are expected to fill in, along with explanations of why these are correct and their significance.

1. The Opening Scene

Excerpt: "Do you bite your thumb at us, sir?" Cloze version: "Do you ____ your thumb at us, sir?" Answer: - bite
Explanation: This line introduces the tension and hostility between the servants of the two households. "Bite your thumb" is an insulting gesture, setting the tone of conflict. Recognizing "bite" here is critical for understanding the initial provocation.

2. The Prince's Decree

Excerpt: "If ever you disturb our streets again, your lives shall pay the forfeit of the peace." Cloze version: "If ever you ____ our streets again, your lives shall pay the forfeit of the peace." Answer: - disturb Explanation: This establishes the authority of the Prince and the seriousness of the feud. The word "disturb" emphasizes disruption of order, a recurring theme.

3. Romeo's Melancholy

Excerpt: "O, teach me how I should forget to think!" Cloze version: "O, teach me how I should ____ to think!"
Answer: - forget
Explanation: Romeo's lines reveal his deep emotional state, foreshadowing the tragic love he will soon experience. The word "forget" underscores his pain over unrequited love.

4. Romeo's Love for Rosaline

Excerpt: "She'll not be hit with Cupid's arrow." Cloze version: "She'll not be hit with Cupid's ____." Answer: - arrow
Explanation: This alludes to Cupid as the god of love and symbolizes Romeo's hopeless love for Rosaline, which is a key motivator early in the play.

5. The Capulet Ball

Excerpt: "My only love sprung from my only hate!" Cloze version: "My only love sprung from my only ____!" Answer: - hate
Explanation: Juliet's words highlight the tragic irony: she falls in love with Romeo, a Montague, despite the familial hatred. Recognizing "hate" here is crucial for understanding the play's central conflict.
