Rabindranath Tagore (1861–1941), Nobel laureate in Literature, was not only a literary genius but also a visionary thinker who believed that education is the foundation of a harmonious society. His educational philosophy revolves around the idea that education should be a natural, joyful process that develops the entire personality—intellectual, emotional, spiritual, and physical. Tagore's views challenged the conventional, rigid classroom methods prevalent during his time, advocating instead for an education rooted in human values, cultural diversity, and the love of nature.
