It creates a subconscious sense of familiarity and rapport. - Open Body Language: Maintaining an open posture, uncrossed arms, and relaxed gestures signals receptivity and friendliness. - Eye Contact: Appropriate eye contact demonstrates confidence and interest, but overdoing it can feel intimidating. Jack advises balancing eye contact to foster trust without crossing into discomfort. 2. Building Genuine Rapport Authentic connection is central to the concept of being likeable. Jack emphasizes that people tend to like those who show genuine interest and empathy. - Active Listening: Truly paying attention, nodding, and providing verbal affirmations makes others feel valued. - Finding Common Ground: Identifying shared interests or experiences creates instant bonds. - Personal Touch: Small gestures, such as remembering someone's name or details about their life, significantly enhance likability. 3.
