Key Themes in Norman Geisler's Systematic Theology

1. God is absolute, eternal, and unchanging.
2. The Trinity is a central doctrine, emphasizing the coexistence of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as one divine essence.
3. God's sovereignty encompasses all creation, yet human free will remains genuine.

He contends that understanding God's nature is essential for grasping other doctrines like salvation and ethics. His writings often defend the traditional doctrines against alternative views such as open theism or process theology.

1. The Doctrine of Revelation

Geisler affirms the sufficiency and clarity of divine revelation, primarily through the Bible. He distinguishes between general revelation (through nature and conscience) and special revelation (through Scripture and Jesus Christ). His views include:

1. The Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of God.
2. The importance of biblical inerrancy for doctrinal stability.
3. The role of the Holy Spirit in illuminating Scripture for believers.

He emphasizes that understanding divine revelation is crucial for knowing God's will and living a faithful life.

According to Geisler, humans are created in the image of God (imago Dei), which confers dignity and moral responsibility. His anthropology includes:

1. The nature of humanity as composed of body, soul, and spirit.
2. The fall of man as the origin of sin and corruption.
3. The ongoing struggle between the flesh and the Spirit.

He stresses that salvation involves the renewal of human nature through the work of Christ and the Holy Spirit.

1. Regeneration: The new birth by the Holy Spirit.
2. Justification: Being declared righteous through faith in Christ.
3. Sanctification: The process of becoming more Christ-like.
4. Glorification: The final transformation at Christ's return.

He supports the doctrine of eternal security (once saved, always saved), asserting that salvation is based on Christ's work, not human effort.

1. Christology

Central to Geisler's systematic theology is a high view of Christ:

1. Jesus is fully God and fully man.
2. His death and resurrection provide the atonement for sin.
3. The bodily resurrection affirms His divine authority and promises eternal life for believers.

He also defends the historicity of the Resurrection against critics and skeptics.

1. Eschatology

Geisler's eschatological views are generally premillennial and futurist, highlighting:

1. The literal return of Christ.
